

Decision February 2019
Digital Currency Now Cash To Spend
Retailers, Wholesalers and Auctions

What you need to know

Quote:

We give you consent to reproduce our banknotes, or a part of one, if you comply with our reproduction conditions (you do not need to contact us for permission).

These conditions apply whether you are using our approved images or creating your own.

Web Site <https://www.bankofengland.co.uk/banknotes/using-images-of-banknotes> shows example picture digital liability: Use Internet Online Software with License Agreement to print clear digital images similar to original in circulation of hard copy retains details needed or required. Serial Number with details of Bank Note and Cashier's Signature who authorizes distribution remain intact. Train to match both sides use pulp wood material printing paper

Example intentional use auction money raised for charity £370,000

website: <http://www.bankofengland.co.uk>

Digital-Payments

Pdf. type or copy paste link in brackets in website address bar: (boe-response-to-hmt-call-for-evidence-on-cash-and-digital-payments.pdf)

Print or download save to folder to read later 6 pages shops do not know anything about digital currency or liability raise awareness need more customers, They will accept reproduced bank notes if widely known. They have not been told.

Use original look hard copy create your own digital image a clear picture removes add ons like polymer melts under temperature and metallic rubs off using pulp wood material returns to paper.

They are note fake or counterfeit that is voucher. They are similar to what in circulation and but pulp paper named digital currency use as digital payment or cash denominations - £1, £5, £10, £20, £50 and £100

Deposit in CDMs this sort of digital cash payment discreet. Do not use counter service is for hard copy.

Follow on screen instruction when access part ATM to withdraw or deposit with bank card. Do not show any bank notes when ask

Advert collections bulk 3 lots £20 £10 £5 liability digital payment cash pay £15

Images

